DETAILED ACTIONClaim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jones.

Jones discloses all of the elements of this claim including stuffed toy comprising at least one movable member [sleeves 14 and 15 and hands 16 and 17] constructed of flexible material and movable to either of a first position in which the moveable member is visible and a second position in which the moveable member is at least partially concealed from view [Figs 1 and 2].

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Glass et al, hereinafter Glass.

Glass discloses all of the elements of this claim including stuffed toy comprising at least one movable member [arm 14] constructed of flexible material [doll is made out of fabric] and movable to either of a first position in which the moveable member is visible and a second position in which the moveable member is at least partially concealed from view [arm 14 is inherently capable of being moved to either of a first position or second position, i.e. by moving the doll's arm behind the back of the doll's body and therefore, at least partially concealing it from view].

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by VonPhilp, Sr, hereinafter VonPhilp.

VonPhilp discloses all of the elements of this claim including stuffed toy comprising at least one movable member [fabric section 36] constructed of flexible material and movable to either of a first position in which the moveable member is visible [Fig 4] and a second position in which the moveable member is at least partially concealed from view [Fig 6].

5. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lidert, Jr, hereinafter Lidert.

Lidert discloses all of the elements of these claims including stuffed toy [col 2 line 23] comprising at least one movable member/tongue [tongue member 20] constructed of flexible material [the tongue is capable of being coiled or rolled up] and movable to either of a first position [Figs 3 and 5] in which the moveable member is visible and a second position in which the moveable member is at least partially concealed from view [Figs 1 and 4], a pocket [cavity 19 formed by the jaw] positioned within the mouth [col 2 line 8].

Allowable Subject Matter
